- Kazuya has been professional and passionate. He has put a lot of effort and made the subject interesting.
- Teaches about research methods. Provides insight into ongoing research. Allows students to think creatively about an academic topic.
- Very interesting range of topics, taught in a clear, concise way with lots of enthusiasm and passion.
- Enthusiastic teaching, supportive atmosphere in class. Ideas made very clear and understandable.
- In-depth and current research
- Very interesting module. Particularly about the vocab learning and teaching.
- The engaging and enthusiastic delivery of each session. The clear structure that built on what was learned every week, which allowed us to really get a full understanding of the subject.
- Really interesting topics, explained thoroughly. I left each lesson feeling really motivated and happy.
- The diversity and depth of studies and literature offered during the course was really useful and interesting. Our critical thinking was challenged every week which sparked more interest in the subject.
- The teacher. He taught us asking questions regarding previous week's lessons etc. One of only 3 tutors/professors that I can say this about in 3 years.

- This module has broadened my knowledge in the field of language teaching.
- Fantastic module! Highly engaging and interactive; the combination of a dynamic class and a highly-motivated yet knowledgeable lecturer has resulted in an atmosphere in which one can truly thrive. One of the best modules I've taken at Birkbeck.
- Kazuya is the best lecturer I've ever had.
- Dr Saito is easily my favourite lecturer and has convinced me to follow this area of study for my future.
